

BRITISH SINK FOUR GERMAN TORPEDO BOAT DESTROYERS

REPORTS INDICATE THAT FOUR HUNDRED TEUTONS GO DOWN WITH SHIPS

Only One British Officer and Four Men Wounded— English Troops Capture Important Position Near Lille—Prussians Trying to Move to Dunkirk and Calais—Reports of Fighting in Eastern Theatre Are Conflicting.

While the armies of the allies and the German invaders are preparing their mighty lines, stretching from the Belgian coasts outward, for a great battle, the ships of war in the North Sea again are showing activity. The British have been engaged in the sinking of the cruiser Hawke by a German submarine, with a swift descent upon four German torpedo boat destroyers, which they sent to the bottom.

Captain Cecil H. Fox, who was commander of the Cruiser Amphion, destroyed by a German mine on August 6, was in command of the light cruiser Undaunted and the four British torpedo boat destroyers Lance, Lennox, Legion and Loyal, which engaged the Germans off the Dutch coast. The battle must have been fast for the British had only one officer and four men wounded while the official report issued by admiralty says thirty-one survivors of the German destroyers are prisoners of war. This would mean that nearly 400 Germans went down with their ships.

In the land fighting the British troops have captured Fromelles, an important position to the southwest of Lille, on the French left, while the French commander has been receiving aid from sailors of the French fleet on the important strategic positions between Ypres and the sea. The French sailors are said to have acquitted themselves well, repulsing a German attack and capturing detachments of cavalry and infantry.

Winston Spencer Churchill, first lord of the British admiralty, declares that the sending of British naval brigades to Antwerp was part of a large operation for the relief of the city and that the withdrawal was not on account of the attack or pressure by the Germans, but "in obedience to the general strategic situation."

That the Germans are trying to move down the North Sea coast to Dunkirk and Calais is certain, but just how far to the south of Ostend they have proceeded is not actually known. Reports that there has been fighting in the neighborhood of Dunkirk are not generally credited.

The Holland-American liner Noordam, which left New York on October 6, and was reported to have reached Falmouth on October 15, has been damaged by a mine in the North Sea and is believed to be proceeding to Rotterdam. The message conveying this information said that seven persons aboard the Noordam were injured by the explosion.

The latest British casualty list includes among the killed Major General Hubert I. W. Hamilton, who was Field Marshall Kitchener's right hand man in South Africa and India.

Brings War Nearer England.
London, Oct. 17.—Each day brings the war nearer home to England. Today there was a naval battle off the Dutch coast, in which a British cruiser and four destroyers sank four German destroyers, while on land the German troops reached the coast of Belgium, less than seventy miles from Dover. They are about to attempt a march southward to Dunkirk and Calais, which are even closer to the English coast.

It is here in West Flanders and across the French frontiers in Pas de Calais that the heaviest and most important fighting is now going on.

great victory to reach the coast of France and "hold the pistol at England's head" have brought up strong reinforcements and will strive with all their might to achieve this object.

Their official report, issued this afternoon, says that no events of importance have happened; but as they await important victories, before making any announcement this does not mean there has been no fighting.

The allies also can bring up reinforcements, both by sea and land and have been doing so, which makes it certain that a great battle must be fought before either side gives ground. The allies will be assisted by the British ships when the fighting reaches points near the coast.

Along the center, which now stretches from Roye to the Meuse, there appears to have been a lull in the fighting, which means of course, that although the artillery has been busy, neither side has attempted any attacks.

Around St. Mihiel, south of Verdun, where the Germans are hanging on to the little strip of the river Meuse which they succeeded in crossing and from which the French have been trying for weeks to drive them, the battle has been almost continuous and the French claim to have gained more ground.

In Alsace, which is seldom mentioned in the official report, there has been fighting which however both French and German statements ignored. Twice during the week reports have come from Basel that the Germans have been defeated there and now an unofficial account from Berlin says that the fortress of Belfort has been attacked with mortars.

Express Confidence in Outcome.
Both Berlin and Paris express the greatest confidence in the outcome of the battle in the east and west.

Reports of fighting in East Prussia, Poland, Galicia and Hungary are so widely at variance that it is difficult to judge of the progress of the battles. Austria claims to be driving the Russians out of Hungary, while the Russian generals say they are leaving the country to escape danger of infection from cholera.

Berlin says the Galician fortress of Przemyśl has been relieved, while the Russian report, received through Rome says that the fortress at last has fallen. In Poland both sides insist that they have gained the advantage in advance guard actions. The only thing on which the two sides agree is that inactivity prevails in Suwalki.

In Poland where a big and important battle has begun the Germans are making for the crossings of the Vistula, behind which the Russians are waiting for them. The Russian advance guards thrown out in front of the river are falling back before the German advance and it is doubtless in this fighting which was referred to in the official reports from Berlin and Petrograd.

One account says that the Germans have taken the offensive with success but the Russians declare that the Austrians and Germans have been repulsed to the defensive. It is likely that the condition of roads prevent either side from making advances and they will have to wait until the ground has been hardened by frost before striking their real blows.

Delay Is Important to Allies.
From the allies' standpoint the delay in the eastern theatre of war is of importance, for it prevents the Germans from sending reinforcements to the west. The inhabitants of Poland apparently are giving the Germans some trouble and are reported to have organized marauding parties, which, while they cannot do much damage to an army, can interfere with its communications by destroying roads and bridges.

Mines and the stopping of neutral steamers are causing much annoyance to neutral countries. Following the example of Germany and England, Russia is now sowing mines in the Baltic while the Germans are said to have placed these dangerous machines in the Scheldt, which is Dutch water. The Adriatic also has been mined and the Italian fishing industry virtually brought to an end.

The Scandinavian countries and Holland are the chief sufferers from the searching of neutral ships, for these ships now are being stopped by both British and German warships.

WAR BULLETINS

SEATTLE, Wn., Oct. 17.—A merchant exchange despatch from Port Said says that the Blue funnel steamer Titan that sailed from Seattle for Great Britain on August 7 with a million dollar cargo, largely food stuffs is afire in the Suez Canal. No details are given.

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 17.—via London.—The Germans, according to the Handelsblad have laid mines in the river Scheldt, near Antwerp. Skippers bound for Antwerp have been requested to ask instructions how to proceed at Hansweert, a port in the Estuary of the Scheldt.

LONDON, Oct. 17.—Midnight.—An official message from Berlin received in Amsterdam and forwarded by the correspondent of Reuters Telegram Co., declares that considerable war material was seized by the Germans in Bruges and Ostend. The spoils include a great number of rifles and ammunition and 200 locomotives.

LONDON, Oct. 18.—4.48 a. m.—The Bordeaux correspondent of the Times in a despatch dated Saturday says:

"Opinion here continues satisfied with the military position. According to popular expression, Gen. Joffre is thrusting the enemy out of doors without any unnecessary fuss."

"It is apparent from the official communication that the enemy is held along the immense front. The enemy's attempt to envelop the allies between Lille and the sea has failed."

LONDON, Oct. 18.—12:21 a. m.—The admiralty announces that the British loss in the engagements Saturday off the Dutch coast, in which four German torpedo boat destroyers were sunk, was one officer and four men wounded. The damage to the British destroyers was slight. The announcement adds: "There are 31 German survivors, prisoners of war."

MOVE FOR RELIEF OF BELGIANS SPREADS THROUGHOUT COUNTRY

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The movement to secure funds for the relief of Belgians left destitute by the war has spread throughout the United States. San Francisco and Portland have organized committees to solicit funds and New Orleans and St. Louis have taken up the work.

Many donations have reached the Belgian minister, Mr. Havenith. The contributions now aggregate more than $13,000. The money is being forwarded to the Belgian capital in first among those Belgians who have been forced to leave their country. Later the work in Belgium proper will be taken up.

FRENCH ECONOMIST ESTIMATES WAR EXPENSE

Paris, Oct. 17.—Paul Leroy-Beaulieu, the French economist, estimates that each of the greater belligerents is spending an average equivalent to $200,000,000 monthly.

In presenting these figures to the Academy of Moral and Political Sciences today, he said that he considered it probable that the war would continue for seven months from August 1. Accordingly the five greater powers engaged were committed to an expenditure of $7,000,000,000 (seven billion). Each of the smaller states, including Japan, will have expenses of from $600,000,000 to $800,000,000 to meet.

CAPTURED CARGO BURNS

London, Oct. 17.—A despatch from Alexandria, Egypt, to the Reuters Telegram Co., says: "The cargo of the German steamer Sudmark, which was captured in the Red Sea a month ago, has been destroyed by fire in a warehouse here."

"The cargo consisted of tea, jute and cocoon and was valued at a million dollars."

these warships having returned from the Black Sea to the Sea of Marmora. It is considered doubtful whether they will go out again, unless Turkey throws in her lot with Germany, for the British ambassador at Constantinople has declared that the cruisers Goeben and Breslau will be considered enemy ships as long as they are officered and manned by Germans.

Turkey is keeping her army mobilized at great cost and to the detriment of trade and commerce, which are practically at a standstill. Although the crops are good, famine is feared in the Armenian provinces and the Patriarchate is sending commissions to demand countries to collect funds for the benefit of the sufferers.

Germany, it is said, has sent money to Constantinople, but it is considered doubtful that they will be able to supply all Turkey's wants at this time.

The Germans are busy rebuilding the forts around Antwerp.

GREAT BRITAIN FEARS INVASION BY GERMANS

ACTIVITIES OF ENGLISH INDICATE A CERTAIN NERVOUSNESS

May Easily Develop into More Serious Outbreaks—Prominent British Gives Views on the Effect of a Possible Zeppelin Raid.

LONDON, Oct. 18.—3:40 a. m.—"Will England be invaded by Germany?" This is the question now on the lips of the people of this country since the arrival of the German hosts in proximity to the English shores. It would be wrong to say that a panic prevails, but an anti-German outbreak at Deptford, the activity of the authorities regarding Austrian and German residents who hitherto have been regarded as harmless and the reports of raids on German owned factories indicate a certain nervousness which may easily develop into more serious outbreaks of popular feeling.

There is no doubt that the Germans have planned to reach London by means of airships and aeroplanes. They have boasted that their 75 Zeppelins would suffice to "lay eggs on London," but the opinion of English aviation experts and air-men who are now patrolling the sky is that any such enterprise is doomed to failure.

It is stated by a Sunday paper, the People, that the government is in possession of a new invention, incendiary bullet, which can be fired from an ordinary rifle and which immediately when it strikes an airship sets the gas afire. The invention can be applied to maxims and other guns as easily as it can to a rifle.

Hirman Maxim, the inventor, in a statement today said he had no fears of the result of a Zeppelin raid, especially in view of the weather to be expected this winter. He is convinced, he said, that it would cost the Germans more than $5,000,000 to destroy property valued at half that amount in London by means of Zeppelins. In order to hurl their bombs with anything like accuracy they would have to descend to an altitude at which they would be within range of guns. A raid by Zeppelins or aeroplanes might be annoying Maxim said and might result in the killing of a few innocent persons but an air bombardment would be an extremely feeble affair.

Another view is taken by William Jayson-Hicks, a member of Parliament who was strong in his attacks on the government a year or two ago regarding the alleged inadequacy of the British air craft. In his opinion there is special for the docks where it would be impossible for the aircraft to miss.

The unfortunate aviator who seeks to attack Zeppelins at the altitude at which they usually travel, would be half frozen to death in the opinion of Jayson-Hicks, whereas the crew of the Zeppelins are in comfortable warm cabins. Rifle bullets are of no use against Zeppelins nor are shells unless they can be timed to explode exactly in the bag. The surest method, he believes is for the aviator to dash headlong into the Zeppelin bringing it to the ground.

MAJOR GENERAL HAMILTON IS KILLED IN FIGHTING IN FRANCE

LONDON, Oct. 17.—A casualty list of the British expeditionary force in France dated October 14, reports the death of Major General Hubert I. W. Hamilton and ten other officers and the wounding of twenty-five officers.

Major General Hubert Ion Wedderburn Hamilton, commander of the Third division of the British field troops and was mentioned in the official despatches of Field Marshall Sir John French to Earl Kitchener, early in September, reporting the desperate fighting in the vicinity of Mons. He was born in 1861. He served in the Egyptian and South African campaigns and in 1900-02 was military secretary to Lord Kitchener, who at that time was commander in chief of the British forces in South Africa. He was also military secretary to Lord Kitchener who the latter was commander in chief in India.

ROBINSON BREAKS AMERICAN RECORD FOR CONTINUOUS FLIGHT

DES MOINES, Ia., Oct. 17.—Aviator W. C. Robinson, of Grinnell, Ia., today flew from here to Kentland, Indiana, approximately 365 miles.

The previous American record for continuous flight was 264 miles made by C. Murwin Wood on August 9, 1913. When Robinson left here at 10:56 this morning he intended Grant Park, Chicago, to be his destination. Nearing Chicago, however, he became lost in a storm and landed in Kentland. This was at 3:10 p. m. according to a message sent here.

Robinson's attempt to establish a new record was sanctioned by the Aero Club of America. He used a monoplane.

PUSHES WOMAN BENEATH HORSE'S HOOF.

Chicago, Oct. 17.—The girl of Mrs. James Ewing, seventy years old, as she was crossing Dearborn street at Madison today, was too slow for the pedestrian behind her. He pushed by, shoving her beneath the hoof of a horse. She was trampled so badly that she died an hour later. The man was in too much of a hurry to stop.

SENATOR WARNS WARRING NATIONS

Stone Says Belligerents Should Be Careful to Recognize U. S. Rights

THOMAS READS LETTER

Epistle Tells of French Officers Compelling Germans Aboard American Ship to Sign Paroles

LANSING RECEIVES NO REPORT

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—Senator Stone, chairman of the foreign relations committee made a speech in the senate warning belligerent nations to respect the rights of the United States as a neutral nation.

"When we are perfecting our duty," he said, "to maintain neutrality, nations involved in war should be very careful to recognize our rights and to keep faith with us. If they fail to do so, then the responsibility of violating the rights of a neutral power will rest upon their heads."

The Missouri senator spoke after Senator Thomas of Colorado had read a letter he had received from R. W. Patterson, a passenger aboard the United Fruit Co.'s, vessel Metapan. The letter set forth that on October 4, after the Metapan had changed from British to American registry, she was halted by the French Cruiser Condee while playing between two Colombian ports, boarded by French officers and five Germans aboard were compelled to sign paroles promising not to serve against the allies. The letter added that an American consul who was on board had filed a report of the incident to the state department.

Acting Secretary Lansing said later today he had received no report, and, knowing nothing of the details of the incident, would not pass judgment on it.

If the German born passengers who signed paroles had refused to do so and been removed from the ship, an issue would have been presented which, in the opinion of some of the officials, now seems to be lacking. Had the Germans been made prisoners by the French it is admitted a debatable question as to whether the French commander was not entirely within his rights in making the arrests. That he had authority to stop a neutral vessel and search for contraband is generally admitted and the only point that remains in doubt is as to the extension of this authority to the subjects of a belligerent power.

Many times since the outbreak of the present war British cruisers have exercised this right and have arrested and carried to English jails a great many German reservists found in neutral ships. This was particularly true of Dutch, Spanish and Swedish vessels and if the government to which their owners owe allegiance have made any protests the fact never has been reported.

As pointed out by a state department official, the present war has had a most revolutionary effect upon international law. Many old principles have been abandoned and the rights and duties of neutrals. When the war ends it may be necessary to rewrite the whole code of international law. While these underlying principles are in such a transient condition the officials of the department are unwilling to pass on any hypothetical case and will deal only with actual happenings, such as the stoppage of the Metapan when the facts are officially laid before them in such form as to require a formal opinion and action.

STATEMENT SHOWS RAPID GROWTH OF THE AMERICAN EXPORT TRADE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—Rapid growth of the American export trade, despite first effects of the European war is shown in an official statement issued today by the department of commerce. Breadstuffs, cotton, food, animals, meat and dairy products, cotton seed and mineral oils exported during September show an increase of $37,119,280 over shipments in August, the first month of the war.

Notable increases in exports of corn, wheat, flour, fresh beef, pickled beef, bacon, lard, illuminating oils, lubricating oils, gasoline, naphtha and fuel oils are shown, while numerous other commodities specified all shown light increases over August.

REPORT REVULSION OF FEELING IN CHINA

London, Oct. 17.—A despatch from Berlin, received by the Marconi Wireless Telegraph Co., says: "It is reported from Tokio that a complete revulsion of feeling in favor of Germany has occurred in China."

"Reports of German victories are promptly announced by the Chinese press and our successes at Tsing-tau and the achievements of the Cruiser Endem have been received with rejoicing."

THREATENS SHAKE-UP OF POLICE ORGANIZATION

HOYNE GATHERS EVIDENCE OF COLLUSION BETWEEN OFFICERS

More Than Twenty of the "Big Fry" of the Underworld are Taken into Custody and Questioned as to What They Know About Police Protected Crime.

CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—Exposure of collusion between the police and criminals which, it is said, would shake the police organization to its foundations, is threatened by States Attorney Hoyne. Ever since "Barney" Bertsehe, convicted confidence man, was shot down in an alleged attempt to seal his lips, the state's attorney and his assistants have been combing the city for graft witnesses, but the magnitude of his plans were not learned until today.

That more than twenty of the "big fry" of the underworld have been secretly taken into custody and held at various hotels, where they have been questioned as to what they may know about police protected crime, was revealed after Roy Jones, owner of a cafe in the old segregated district, obtained his freedom by a ruse.

Since Monday he has been under guard in a down town hotel, where he was repeatedly asked such questions as "did you ever collect money from cafe and saloon owners and pay it to the police?"

While a waiter was clearing up the table after luncheon and a detective on guard had his back turned, Jones threw a note, tied to a spoon, out a window. A passerby notified Jones' attorney, who obtained his freedom. Jones was later arrested on a charge of operating a confidence game and was admitted to bail.

It is understood that the state's attorney has corralled all the witnesses in the murder of Isaac Henegow, which took place in Jones' cafe. He also has in custody, it is said, witnesses in the Twenty-second street revolver fight in which a detective sergeant was killed and several police officers wounded. The state's attorney charged connivance between denizens of the district and the police in both shootings.

Bertsehe is charged with being the go-between for a band of clairvoyants who are said to have operated in Chicago with police protection. He has been convicted for his part in one swindle in which a woman lost $16,000 and now that the supreme court has affirmed his sentence it is believed he will make good his threat that he would "not do time alone."

Evidence involving at least a dozen detectives assigned to headquarters has been obtained. Hoyne said tonight. This, he added, would be presented before the October grand jury.

Jones was arrested on a warrant charging him with swindling Clark Drasbeck out of $2,500 on a fake horse race, on September 25.

DISCLOSE DETAILS OF LOSSES TO THE ROCK ISLAND RAILWAY

B. F. Yoakum Describes Purchase and Sale of Frisco Lines by the Rock Island as a Loss of Approximately $7,500,000.

Washington, Oct. 17.—Disclosures of details of losses to the Chicago Rock Island and Pacific railway through financial operations were made tonight by the interstate commerce commission today as witnesses intimately identified with the transactions.

R. P. Yoakum, who participated actively in the sale of the Frisco Lines to the Rock Island and who subsequently repurchased the Frisco for himself and associates, describes the negotiations as a loss to the Rock Island of approximately $7,500,000.

Mr. Yoakum also gave his views on such supervision as he believed the government ought to exercise over railroads. His idea is that a co-partnership ought to exist between the government and the railroads by which each should have a share in the responsibility and in the earnings. He thought one of the great achievements of the present administration was its decision to construct and operate railroads in Alaska.

J. N. Wallace, president Central Trust Co., New York, testified that there is strong probability the securities of the two Rock Island holding companies would be wiped out and that every dollar invested in them would be lost. As trustee of the bond holders the Central Trust Co., is pressing for the sale of the Rock Island stock held as security for its bonds. The sale of this stock, the witness said, would eliminate the securities of the holding companies as a factor of any value.

At the conclusion of today's testimony the interstate commerce commission hearings in the Rock Island investigation were adjourned to an undetermined future date, perhaps several weeks hence.

MORE MISSOURI HORSES

FOR THE WAR
Between 1000 and 1500 horses have been shipped from Springfield, Mo., within the last six weeks for points in Canada, whence they will be shipped to English ports for use in the European war. One buyer, John Bradbury of Chicago, has bought hundreds, which he sent to Chicago by express. More than 600 head at present awaiting inspection by buyers in barns of Springfield dealers.

WAR REVENUE BILL PASSES THE SENATE

Measure Levying Taxes to Meet Emergency Caused by Conflict Is Adopted

COALITION IS DEFEATED

Efforts of Southern Members to Postpone action Because of Cotton Relief are Frustrated

WILL GO TO HOUSE MONDAY

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The administration war revenue bill, levying approximately $100,000,000 additional taxes to meet the emergency caused by the war in Europe, was passed by the senate tonight by a vote of 34 to 22, after southern Democrats, in coalition with Republicans of the senate fought desperately to indefinitely postpone consideration of the measure because cotton relief legislation had been defeated decisively.

Democratic leaders, by a supreme effort in the climax of the cotton fight, gathered their faltering forces and spurring them on with appeals for party solidarity, defeated the coalition in its move to indefinitely postpone action, 32 to 25. Senators Clarke of Arkansas, Smith of Georgia, Smith of South Carolina, Vardaman and White, were the Democratic senators who fought to the end, voting with the Republicans to postpone action. This would have killed the bill for the present session of congress.

Despite urgent pleas of Senators Williams, Stone, Shively and James, who demanded that Democratic support for a measure fostered by the administration, these five southern senators, under a storm of denunciation persisted in their determination that the bill should contain some cotton relief provisions.

The enlivening contest that marked the passage of the bill foreshadowed the end of the long drawn out session of congress, which has kept flags flying over the capital almost continuously for the last two years. The final vote will go to the house on Monday and will be sent to conference. An agreement on the measure between the two houses probably will be reached by the middle of next week.

The vote on the revenue bill followed party lines with one exception, Senator Lane of Oregon, Democrat, voting against it. Immediately after its passage the senate, on motion of Senator Simmons, insisted on its amendments and asked a conference with the house. Conference members are Simmons, Williams, Stone, McCumber and Clark of Wyoming.

COMMISSIONERS STOP WORK.

Washington, Oct. 17.—After three days consideration the commissioners of the various states to draft uniform state laws today postponed final action on the uniform business incorporation act until next year. Every one of the forty-six sections has been privately written by the conference and it was decided best to have the committee which had prepared the act re-draft for presentation at the next annual meeting.

Former President Taft will address the commissioners at their session on Monday.

WOUND U. S. TROOPERS.

Naco, Ariz., Oct. 17.—The Maytorena forces, partisans of Villa, were defeated with heavy losses during their attack on Naco, Sonora, last night and early today.

Bullets from the rifles of the Indians who rushed the entrenchments of the Carranza forces under Gen. Hill, passed to this village. Seven persons were wounded, including four negro troopers of the Ninth United States cavalry on duty here. Two of the most seriously wounded troopers, neither of whom is expected to live, were sent to the army hospital at Fort Huachuca.

Would Represent All.
If Allison Thompson is elected county commissioner in November there will be minority representation on the board, and the average voter believes that this is a desirable thing. This statement can be made without any reflection upon the members of the Democratic party who are now serving on the board, but it is certainly well to have both parties represented. Mr. Thompson is a fair minded and broad minded Morgan county farmer who has been so long a resident that he thoroughly understands the needs of the county in all sections. He would represent not only the portion of the county in which he has so long been a resident but the interests of the city and the country equally.

Experience Is Desirable.
The office of superintendent of schools is different from the others which are to be filled at the coming election and while it is in a sense political it certainly is not so to the extent that is true of the other offices. The position, if the requirements are to be met fully, demands a man with experience and not only in actual teaching and management but also a man who has made a study of educational problems and has kept pace with the progress made along various lines during recent years. Hart A. Withee, the Republican candidate for this office, can measure up to these requirements. When he was superintendent before his record was that of an indefatigable worker and also one with progressive ideas in educational work. He is thoroughly interested in the problems of the country school, and the schools of Morgan county can safely be entrusted to his direction both educationally and in the other relationships which under the Illinois law the superintendent must assume.

Points on School Law.
The Act of 1913, regarding high school privileges, is mandatory, so far as the home district is concerned. The parent is expressly authorized to select the high school to be attended, provided, always, he selects a high school that offers a program of studies extending through four school years. The consent of the Board of Education that maintains the high school must be secured. The parent thereafter requests the school directors of the district, in which he resides, to approve the high school so selected. When a transfer is made the tuition must be paid by the school district in which the pupil resides. The duty of collecting the tuition devolves upon the Board of Education that maintains the high school. The tuition must be paid from any funds of the district not otherwise appropriated. The tuition, no case, must exceed the per capita cost of maintenance. The Act of 1913 does not affect school districts that provide work in the ninth and tenth grades until the work of such grades is completed.

Religion and the Telephone.
A recent authority on manners, writing for a journal of large circulation, says: "Perhaps the truest test of modern breeding is at the telephone. Temper and selfishness surely show themselves here. A special code of manners could be written for the telephone with profit to society and to the general public. After all, the only rule of good breeding is good feeling, and its studied expression in every detail of daily life. Sir Philip Sidney, himself an ideal gentleman, summed up manners in one sentence: 'High-crowned thoughts seated in a heart of courtesy.'"
The telephone test is a daily test with most of us, young and old. How do we come out of it? How many could win the testimonial from the telephone exchange girls that a woman won in one city of a hundred thousand people, "Mrs. — is the lady who is always pleasant to the exchange operators, and never loses her temper." How many, on the other hand, qualify for the verdict on another woman, user of a party line, "She holds up the whole line, talking forever, and is just as disagreeable as she can be when the others try to get a chance?"
The telephone tries out temper; there is no doubt of that. Sometimes the operator are beginners and very stupid. Sometimes there are delays and cut-offs. Sometimes people call us up who annoy us, or interrupt us. But the man or woman at the telephone ought to stand all tests. Sir Philip Sidney never dreamed of a telephone. But if he were seated at one today, no matter how awkwardly he might manage it at first, the person at the other end would recognize an ideal gentleman "on the wire."

A daily test is a fair test in any department of life. How does recognition stand the daily test of the telephone?

A Marked Pathway.
In a speech recently Senator Penrose attacked in particular the proposed war tax appropriated by the senate last night, which he said was being forced by the Democrats to cover up the extravagance of a political party which refuses to confess openly that its fiscal policy of tariff for revenue only is a failure. The platform of that party pledging it to economy and simplicity, had been broken and disregarded. As to the "war tax," it was known that the national income had been falling off before there was any war; the Democratic tariff four months ago had failed to justify the one consideration urged for its existence, that it was a tariff for revenue only. That tariff, the Senator declared, has undermined American industries, demoralized the country's business, ruined many a manufacturer and merchant and driven thousands of American wage-earners to idleness and want. He then added:

Its pathway is marked by silent machinery and cheerless homes; its monuments are the smokeless chimneys of the factories.

"THIS IS MY 57TH BIRTHDAY"
Nikola Tesla, famous as an electrician and inventor, was born at Smiljan, Servia, Oct. 18, 1857. As a boy in the Polytechnic school at Graz, he first saw a direct current gramophone machine and was told that a commutator was a vital and necessary feature in all apparatus. He at once was interested in electricity and secured a position as assistant in the government telegraph engineering department at Buda Pesth. Later he was employed by large electric lighting companies in Paris. In 1882 he came to America and was employed for a time in one of Edison's shops. So quick, bright and original was he that Edison soon became personally interested in him. News of Tesla's wonderful discoveries was spread abroad and he leaped into the foremost rank as an electrician. He was one of the first to suggest the electrical possibilities of harnessing Niagara Falls.

SUPREME COURT REVERSES FRANKLIN LAND CASE

Final Finding in the Suit of Sargent Against Roberts is in Favor of the Defendants and Title to Land Will Stand.

The supreme court of Illinois recently gave a decision in the case of Sargent vs. Roberts reversing the finding of the Monroe county circuit court and dismissing the bill for want of equity. This was a suit brought by G. N. Sargent and others against C. E. Roberts and others and involved the title to 87 acres of land in the neighborhood of Franklin.

In the original bill it was set forth that J. T. Sargent a short time prior to his death had deeded to C. E. Roberts the land in question. It was maintained that Mr. Roberts used undue influence in having the deed made to him and that he persuaded Mr. Sargent to sign such a document whereas it was the real desire of the deceased to make a will and dispose of the land otherwise than to Roberts. The complainants won out here before the master in chancery and in the circuit court but the supreme court has reversed the matter. The complainants were represented by W. N. Hairgrove of this city and Nizer & Gordley of Virginia and the defendants by Judge Layman, Thomas Worthington and L. O. Vaught.

RUSSELL'S LONG RUN FOR TOUCHDOWN GIVES CHICAGO VICTORY OVER IOWA

MAROON QUARTER SNAKES HIS WAY THROUGH FROM HIS OWN FORTY-FIVE YARD LINE

Fumbles and Failure of Their Pet Trick Plays Doom Iowans to Remain Scoreless—Illinois Has a Walkaway with Ohio State—Kansas Easily Defeats Drake—Michigan Downs Lansing Aggies—Pennsylvania Wins Over Annapolis Midshipmen.

CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—Snatching an Iowa punt on his own 45 yard line, Pete Russell, Chicago's quarter, snaked his way through a hostile field for the only touchdown of the game on Stag field today. That touchdown was made in the first quarter and for the remainder of the game, the toughest on the Maroon play-grounds for years, Iowa played Chicago to a standstill. The final score was 7 to 0.

Fumbles and the failure of their pet trick plays doomed the Iowans to remain scoreless. Repeatedly they crashed through the Maroon lines, but the "spreadout" play on which Coach Hawley's men depended in the pinches proved so slow that the Chicago forwards smashed it and none of the Hawkeye backs seemed sure of his grip on the oval.

On the other hand, the Iowans spoiled the few forward passes Chicago tried and more than once tumbled "Dolly" Gray, though he managed to tear off some of his famous runs. The Maroon long shots, ineffective also through absence of Huntington, failed as utterly as did Russell's tries at quarter back runs. The defense on both sides far outshone the offense, but for all that the game was full of pretty runs and long punts. Only in the last quarter when rain softened the ground and wet the ball was it slow. For the Iowans, Gross, whose prowess nearly upset the Maroons last year, played a brilliant game. Donnelly also was an aggressive aid.

Substitutions were few, the teams keeping practically all through the game their original strength. The lineup:

Chicago:	Position	Iowa
Whitting	l. e.	Gunderson (Captain)
Shaw	l. t.	Jacobson
Stegeman	l. g.	Denio
Des Jardien	c.	Houghton
(Captain)

Parks	r. e.	Carberry
Russell	q. b.	Gross
Gray	h. b.	Donnelly

Referee—Birch, Earlham. Umpire—Gordon, Harvard. Touchdown—Russell. Goal from touchdown—Schaefer. Substitutions—Chicago: Berger for Schaefer; White for Stegeman. Asher for Flood; Flood for Acker. Iowa: Kennick for Donnelly, Wilson for Denio.

Illinois 37; Ohio State 0.
Champaign, Ill., Oct. 17.—Illinois won today by walking over Ohio State 37 to 0. The Illini played old style football the first quarter, but loosened up with a sensational assortment of forward passes in the remaining periods. The booting of Macomber was a feature. Zupke changed his line-up continually, giving all his men a chance to show. The Illini goal was never in danger. Pogue starred for Illini and Cherry and Graf for Ohio.

The Orange and Blue team kept the ball in the center of the field Pogue ran through the entire Buckeye team for a touchdown. Macomber kicked the goal. This was repeated when Illinois rushed the ball to Ohio's twenty-five yard line and Pogue again broke loose for a touchdown. Macomber kicking goal. The line-up:

Illinois:	Position	Ohio State
Sculer	l. e.	Cherry
Armstrong	l. t.	Snyder
Chapman	l. g.	Kieffer
Watson	c.	Godfrey
Stewart	r. g.	Springer

Summary.

Ohio—Ginn for Yassenoff; Green for Havens; Knoll for Godfrey.

Kansas 32; Drake 7.
Des Moines, Ia., Oct. 17.—Kansas University easily defeated Drake University here today by 32 to 7. The game was low and uninteresting, old style football being played almost continuously by both teams. Shearer's run for 70 yards after catching a Kansas punt scored Drake's only touchdown. The line-up:

Kansas:	Position	Drake
Amasa:
Rever	l. e.	Smith
Gross	l. t.	Warneck

Michigan, 3; Lansing Aggies, 0.
Lansing, Mich., Oct. 17.—With six minutes left to play Larry Splawn drop-kicked a goal from the 20-yard line and the football eleven of the University of Michigan defeated the powerful Michigan Agricultural College team by 3 to 0 here this afternoon. The game, filled with penalties, was one of the roughest and most desperate ever witnessed on the gridiron of a Michigan college.

Pennsylvania U., 13; Navy, 6.
Philadelphia, Oct. 17.—A fine sixty yard run by "Mike" Avoy, who had intercepted a forward pass, gave the University of Pennsylvania football team a victory over the Annapolis Midshipmen on Franklin Field today by 13 to 6. The game abounded in brilliant runs, spectacular forward passing and good punting.

Pittsburgh, 10; Carlisle, 3.
Pittsburgh, Oct. 17.—The University of Pittsburgh continued its winning gait today by defeating the Carlisle Indians by 10 to 3. Pitt made the first score with a goal from field in the first period and added seven more points with a touchdown and goal from touchdown in the second period. Penalties kept Pitt from scoring in the last half. The Indians made their points with a goal from field in the last period.

Minnesota, 29; South Dakota, 7.
Minneapolis, Oct. 17.—With spectacular forward passes, long line plunges, backed by a stonewall defense, the University of Minnesota football eleven today defeated the University of South Dakota 29 to 7. Forward passes figured prominently in Minnesota's scoring, all of which came in the first two quarters. In the last few minutes of play Parham of South Dakota, on a crisis-cross play, broke through the line and ran sixty-two yards for a touchdown.

Princeton, 16; Lafayette, 0.
Princeton, N. J., Oct. 17.—Princeton defeated La Fayette here today by 16 to nothing. The Tigers forced the play the greater part of the time, but her back's were unable to get away because of the poor work of her linemen. On the defensive, Princeton's forwards put up a stubborn resistance. Left Guard Thomas was the strong point in La Fayette's line and he was ably supported by Center Luhr and Right Tackle Maxfield.

Harvard, 13; Tufts, 6.
Cambridge, Mass., Oct. 17.—Harvard's crippled team today defeated a lively eleven from Tufts by 13 to 6. The visitors showed new variations, not only of the forward pass but also of rush. One formation in which ten men stood five yards behind the line, with the quarterback standing over the ball and passing it direct to the rushers enabled Tufts to march fifty yards down the field for a touchdown.

Harvard's scoring was the result of line bucking by Bradlee, the only regular member of the Crimson backfield able to play.

Army, 21; Colgate, 7.
Westpoint, N. Y., Oct. 17.—The army defeated Colgate today by 21 to 7. Fumbling by the visitors led to two of the Army's touchdowns. The game was played on a wet field.

Wisconsin, 14; Purdue, 7.
Madison, Wis., Oct. 17.—The University of Wisconsin today defeated Purdue by 14 to 7. The much feared "Boilermakers" gave the Badgers all they had bargained for. On a soggy field, which contributed to many a slip and fumble the teams stumbled through most of the game with the score even and not until the near close were the Badgers able to put over the winning score.

Dean F. S. Hayden was the chapel preacher at Mount-Clebo Seminary last Sunday.
The Reverend L. H. Davis will speak to the students at the regular chapel exercises on Tuesday morning.

The Gamma Delta girls have begun to repair the room which was assigned to them in Beecher Hall by the Trustees of the College. Attention is again called to the lecture on "The Present Crisis in Europe" by Professor Stella I. Cole. The lecture will be given at Academy Hall Tuesday evening, October 20th, at 7:30. Admission is free and all friends of the College are invited.
Professor Rollin H. Tanner, of the Department of Greek and Latin, has been chosen to act as Dean of the Community Training School.

WOMAN'S COLLEGE NOTES

Founders' Day was fittingly observed on Thursday, October 15th. The resident trustees, together with Mr. Harvey Sconce of Sidell, attended the service in a body. The program was carried out as announced in the paper. The presentation of a large portrait of Mr. Wadsworth was made by Dr. T. J. Pitner. Director Stearns is planning for a Verper Concert in the near future. The work of the orchestra is progressing nicely. New members are being added to the number already taking part.
Mrs. Lamber attended the annual meeting of the Chicago Society of the Woman's College on Saturday, October 17th.
The Young Women's Christian Association gave a carnival and circus Saturday night, the 17th. A delightful time was enjoyed. Many new and original stunts were given.
On Monday, October 19th, the juniors will entertain the freshmen. This is an annual custom and is one that has always been greatly enjoyed by the incoming class.

CHANCELLOR DAY CONGRATULATED

Syracuse, N. Y., Oct. 17.—Congratulations poured in on Chancellor James R. Day this morning, the occasion being his sixty-ninth birthday. Although well along in years, Chancellor Day retains his vigor and his deep interest in college work and humanitarian measures.
Jack Lait, author of "Help Wanted," has written a sketch called "The Scarlet Scandal."

Yale lowered Notre Dame's colors with unexpected ease today 28 to 0, although the visiting eleven was slightly heavier, well balanced and fast. Its forward passing was brilliant and effective but this play was discarded at critical moments in favor of old fashioned line plunging, which the Blue forward smothered.
Yale mixed plays well, working forward, double and triple passes, with fair success.

Lombard, 7; Illinois Wesleyan, 6.
Bloomington, Ill., Oct. 17.—An interrupted forward pass gave Lombard College of Galesburg a seven to six victory over Illinois Wesleyan. Wesleyan made all of her six points on drop kicks by Captain Dunham.

MPBkin, 17; Shurtieff, 0.
Decatur, Ill., Oct. 17.—A kicking, tackling and aggressive play enabled Millikin to defeat Shurtieff today in the first home game of the season, 17 to 0. Caitlin looted two goals from the field for Millikin.

NOTES ON SPORTS.

Captain Jake Daulton of the Superbas suffered an attack of chafey horse right at the close of the season.

Just to strengthen his title of "Batting King", Ty Cobb slouted out a home run in his last game of the season.

"Chief" Bender of the Athletics leads the American league pitchers, with a record of winning 17 out of 20 pitched.

Roth, the Kansas City outfielder who finished the season with the White Sox, batted for 399 in the 34 games in which he took part in the American league.

With three players, Dolan, Mazod and Higgins, among the first ten base-stealers, the Cardinals have the edge on National league teams in sack pilfering.

Charley Herzog has not yet signed to manage the Reds next season. It is expected, however, that "Buck" will attach his John Hancock to a Red contract before long.

The St. Louis Browns and the Washingtons in the American league and the Cincinnati Reds in the National league did not have a single batsman to finish in the 300 class.

Ohio is the home of major league tail enders this year. The Cincinnati Reds finished last in the National league, while the Cleveland Naps landed in the American league cellar.

Football Notes.
Both Pennsylvania and Cornell suffered defeats right at the beginning of the season.

Dick Wigglesworth and Mal Logan, two old Harvard stars, are coaching the Crimson quarterback material.

Knowles is putting up a great game for the Yale eleven. The Eli kicker is doing even better work than last season.

It is said that Yale's good showing in the use of the forward pass is due to the coaching of half a dozen Canadian players, to whom throwing the ball is second nature.

With the Boxers.
Billy Gibson, one of the New York promoters, has closed down his club because of poor business.

Announcement is made that Mike Gibbons and George Chip will meet in a 10-round bout in New York, October 21.

SENTIMENT IN SWEDEN SHIFTS TOWARD ENGLAND AND ALLIES

Change of Marked Significance Has Taken Place Since Hostilities Began—Strict Neutrality However Still Prevails.

Stockholm, September 22. (Correspondence of The Associated Press)—There is sweeping over Sweden today something more significant than the continuous line of infantry, cavalry and artillery which goes to take its part in the mobilization of troops, already numbering 225,000. This is the marked change in the sentiment of this country toward the warring powers. Sweden, which, since the beginning of the war, has been decided German sympathies notwithstanding the strict neutrality declared by its government, is today becoming so impartial that in watching the street crowds before the bulletin boards it is impossible to tell whether Germany or England is the favorite.

A month ago a Stockholm merchant who openly avowed English inclinations was both commercially and socially ostracized. Portraits of the Kaiser and German insignia were hung in shop windows, but no one saw any English displays.

But today there are indications on every hand that the pendulum has begun to swing toward England. This is most plainly reflected in press reports. A month ago one looked in vain for English accounts of the war, but now the representative Stockholm papers give an almost equal space to Berlin and London dispatches. Some of the liberal newspapers even go further than this and limit their Berlin dispatches to short paragraphs in conspicuous places. In most of the papers, however, one may read English comment on the destruction of the Rheims cathedral in one column and the German explanation of it in the next. Since this change has occurred without any pressure from the government, it seems fairly indicative of the changes of the sentiment of Sweden.

In the opinion of citizens of Stockholm, this change has occurred through the gradual decreasing menace of Russia. At first it was taken for granted that Russia had signed upon the integrity of Sweden, but as the days brought no substantiation of these fears, the animosity of the Swedish populace decreased proportionately. In the meantime reports of German methods of warfare and Russian steamships by the German warships added further impetus to the change in Swedish feeling. The result is that having begun with pronounced pro-German sympathies, Sweden may now be said to have grown into impartiality. Whereas the first results of the war were watched with the anxiety of a participant, present developments are regarded with the calmness of an observer who seems equally ready to applaud the generalship and strategic successes of both sides.

Another apprehension which flourished under the influence of strong pro-German sentiment is now deprecated in Stockholm. This was the fear that in the event of repeated German successes England would decide that she must encroach upon neutral territory to offset the advantages derived by Germany from her occupation of Belgium.

During this shift in the popular point of view, the Swedish government has stood firmly by its compact with Norway to remain neutral and to stick together in case of violated neutrality. Official Sweden has been undivided in its opinion and the political cleavage which ordinarily shows so many surfaces has been temporarily levelled by the war. Whether the sympathies of the various parties have been toward the allies or Germany, they have united in expressing a desire for peace. Neither conservative, liberal or socialist, peasant or nobleman has been guilty of stirring up any war spirit in Sweden.

The partial mobilization, it is explained, is purely a precautionary measure to defend her neutrality. "Not to defend it like Belgium," as a Swedish officer said, "but to defend it with success." Following out this purpose, nearly half of Sweden's army of a half million men is in the field, prepared to meet the first move of any of the powers who venture to look lightly upon her neutrality.

The streets of Stockholm are therefore thronged with gray and blue columns, and even the reservists without uniform except for their tri-cornered hats are moving about ready to be summoned to join the forces. Among all classes, war is unpopular, but the necessity for mobilization is keenly realized.

LOW PRESSURE BRINGS EXTRA AND UNEXPECTED RAINSTORM

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 16.—The constitutional peace convention at Aguascalientes issued an order today directing Generals Carranza, Hill and Huila and Governor Maytorena of Sonora to stop the hostilities at Naco, Sonora immediately under penalty of being regarded public enemies.

Generals Angeles, Buelna, Contrera and Galvin were expected to arrive here late tonight on their way to Zapata headquarters which have established on the outskirts of the federal districts. The four generals will invite Zapata to send a formal delegation to the peace conference without delay. The family of General Carranza left the capital tonight on a special train bound for the United States by way of Laredo, Texas. The party boarded the train at five o'clock this afternoon, but the special did not leave the station until darkness set in.

BEGIN PROBE OF ROCK ISLAND.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 17.—With Commissioner Clements presiding, the Interstate Commerce Commission today began an investigation of the financial operations of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railroad. Chief Counsel Joseph W. Poik, who has been working on the preliminary inquiry, is representing the commission at the hearings.

CURS AND SOX DIVIDE MONEY.

Chicago, Oct. 16.—Members of the White Sox and Cubs today divided the receipts of the city series games. Twenty-eight members of the victorious White Sox were eligible to receive checks for $527.30 each. William Buckner, the trainer, Joe O'Neill, traveling secretary and mascot were voted $200 each. The share of each Cub amounted to $503, which included $75 from the exhibition games of the season and $30 refund on uniforms. Trainer Hart and Reuben Cook, traveling secretary were declared for a full share each.

DIES IN ELECTRIC CHAIR HE RUIT.

Michigan City Ind., Oct. 17.—Robert Collier, a negro convicted at Evansville of the murder of John Cain, a policeman of that city, was electrocuted at the State Prison here today. An interesting feature of the case was the fact that Collier helped to build the chair in which he was put to death. When the chair was built some three years ago Collier was serving a term in the prison for assault and battery with intent to kill. He was a helper of the electricians at the prison and in that capacity assisted in building the chair and installing the electrical apparatus.

MME. SCHUMANN-HEINK SYMPATHIZES WITH AUSTRIA

Noted World's Singer Discusses European War.—Has Many Relatives in Conflict.

Mme. Schumann-Heink, the great singer who appeared in concert in Springfield, Thursday night, has great sympathy for Austria, where she has many relatives.

"I try to be neutral," Mrs. Schumann-Heink said. "Yet my heart beats out my sympathy for the Austrian and German cause. I am an American citizen, a resident of Illinois, but my people are of Austria, and my thoughts now are of Austria and Germany and of my brothers and kinsmen now in the front on the great battle lines of Europe."

"Carl Roessler, the commander of the Austrian cruiser Zenta, which in an engagement in the Adriatic sea sank three English and two French ships and then went down into the sea, is my brother. What his fate is I do not know, but my heart goes out to him in his bravery and in the glory he has won. My father was an Austrian army officer. Three of my brothers are in the war. Three husbands of my three sisters are shouldering Austrian arms. Other relatives are in the German armies."

"I deplore the slaughter of thousands of lives and the countless miseries now being heaped on Europe. But my people, the people of Austria and Germany, are in the war to win and with God's help and the bravery of the German army they will be triumphant. Then the iron hand of history will prove the instigator of the merciless slaughter and just retribution will fall."

"When the war broke out I was singing at the Wagner festivals at Bayreuth, Bavaria. The officials came into the performance and notified us. Some of the musicians were taken from the orchestra. We finished the program and the festival ceased."

"I went to Bernbeck, ten miles away. There my Japanese cook was taken prisoner to prevent the mobs from killing him. I myself cooked at the hotel for some days until I at last got a train to Rotterdam. There we embarked for America, securing only steerage passage. At all times the Germans were merciful even kind to people caught in the war zone. The American flag brought full protection. 'Tell our brothers in America of our love for them,' were the last words I heard from the German troops."

"We saw the first wounded come in from Nurnberg. With quiet, drawn faces, they failed to answer the cheers for their bravery. To a man, they were sorrowful that so soon they had been taken from the battle line and to a man desired only to get back into the conflict for their country's glory."

OLDER BOYS MEET IN BIRMINGHAM

Birmingham, Ala., Oct. 17.—A state-wide conference of "older boys" assembled in this city today under the auspices of the Alabama Sunday school association. The purpose of the conference, which will continue in session over Sunday, is to enlist the youths from 15 to 21 years of age in the work of the Sunday school, and to train them for Christian leadership.

The three days' program of the conference provides for every phase of the boy's life—physical, mental, spiritual and social. A "Grand Indian Council" will be held, led by John L. Alexander of Chicago. Addresses on boys' work will be made by boys themselves, and a "Forward Step" meeting for deeper personal consecration will be held on the closing afternoon of the conference.

Charles W. Vail.

Charles W. Vail of Chicago, candidate for clerk of the supreme court of Illinois, is known in every county in the state. He has served as clerk for several courts. As a tribute to his efficient work as clerk of the superior court of Cook county 12 of the judges of the court drew up and signed the following indorsement: "Having had the opportunity in the course of our official duties to observe the administration of the office of the clerk of the superior court of Cook county, we, the undersigned judges of the superior court, hereby express our commendation of the highly efficient manner in which that office has been administered by Charles W. Vail. 'The signers of this significant tribute are: Albert C. Barnes, chief justice, and the following associate justices: Axel Chytrous, George A. Dupuy, Ben M. Smith, Farlin Q. Bell, Marcus Kavanaugh, Theodore Brentano, Willard M. McEwen, Jesse Holdom, Arthur H. Chetlain, Henry V. Freeman and Wm. H. McSureley."

N. S. SARDINE CANNED HAVE GREAT OPPORTUNITY.

War Will Interfere With Fisheries in Foreign Countries and Give Maine Better Chance.

Bangor, Me., Oct. 17.—That the sardine canneries of Maine now have the greatest opportunity of their history before them is the opinion of Dr. Hugh M. Smith, United States commissioner of fisheries, who has been connected with a Federal demonstration to sardine packers of methods of improving the Maine sardine output. He says:

"In 1913, France exported to the United States sardines valued at $1,000,000, Norway sent 400,000 cases, and thousands of cases came here from England, Spain and Portugal. But it was left for the state of Maine to hold the foremost place in supplying the United States. Its output in 1913 was 800,000 cases, valued at more than $2,000,000, which is double the value of the French importations."

"This year, all imported sardines will be among the missing luxuries on account of the great war. Norway has officially forbidden the export of them, believing there will be a shortage of food at home; France can get neither fishermen, packers nor transportation on account of the war so now Maine has the opportunity to step in and claim the right of way over all other nations. The United States Bureau of Fisheries is convinced that if the State appreciates the opening and looks to quality rather than to quantity, it can win out. There is an abundance of material within easy reach. The condition of the sardine fisheries in Europe resulting from the war has given the sardine canners of Maine a chance that may never come again to occupy the market that has been largely given over to foreign goods. But if American sardines are to be raised to the French standard the Maine fisheries must resort to great care and precaution, both in catching and canning."

BELGIAN QUEEN IS WITH KING ALBERT

Harve, via Paris, Oct. 17.—Queen Elizabeth of the Belgians is with her husband at the headquarters of the Belgian army and is his constant companion, except when King Albert approaches the firing line to encourage and direct his troops.

M. Mulmans, Belgian minister of state, in announcing the above fact today, added that King Albert was showing great stoicism and that Queen Elizabeth was sharing his perils and giving an example of dignity and courage worthy of classic times.

A SURE WAY TO END DANDRUFF

Stop Falling Hair and Itching Scalp—At Once

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, common liquid arvon from any drug store (this is all you will need), apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve, and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

If you value your hair, you should get rid of dandruff at once, for nothing destroys the hair so quickly. It not only starves the hair and makes it fall out, but it makes it stringy, straggly, dull, dry, brittle and lifeless, and everybody notices it.

MILITARY SERVICE REQUIRED IN AUSTRALIA AND NEW ZEALAND

Plan Followed There Does Not Seriously Interfere With Education of the Youth—Army Post Office Improves Service.

London, Oct. 2.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press.)—The enforced military training system in Australia and New Zealand is too new to be put to a test in the contingents from the antipodes sent to the present war, but it is talked of seriously here as a possible means to strengthen the English army and at the same time escape the conscription system of the continent.

The Australian system does not take men away from productive labor as does European conscription. It is more as if national guard service were required of every able-bodied man in the United States, beginning with the public school military training. It aims only to provide trained men for emergencies instead of a seasoned and menacing force.

Military service in Australia begins with boys at the age of 12. But from 12 to 14 the junior cadets, as they are called, wear no uniforms and their training is confined to gymnastics, marching, swimming and first aid. Senior cadets, from 14 to 18 years of age, have a simple uniform and receive instruction in company and battalion drill, musketry, sentry duty and the like. The number of hours of drill does not exceed that of an average national guard company in America.

What gives discipline to this force is the law. An employer who keeps an employee from his military duties is subject to a fine of $500. A senior cadet evading duty is liable to fine ranging from $25 to $500 for each year of evasion, the penalty being enforced only in cases where the offender is eighteen years of age or over.

From the time the boys are 18 to 25, there are required of each man 30 drills annually, of which 20 must be out door parades and twelve half-day or six whole-day exercises in the field. Further each man puts in at least a week in annual training in camp and also fires a course of musketry each year.

In New Zealand, an employer who attempts to interfere with the training of a subject is not only fined but blacklisted as well for all government contracts.

Compulsory training will in full operation give Australia a force of 112,000 citizen soldiers and 100,000 cadets and New Zealand a force of 20,000 trained men. Australia has a population of 5,083,000 and New Zealand a million whites.

Army Post Offices.
London, Oct. 2.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press.)—Thousands of letters and cards postmarked "Army Base Post Office" and bearing a circular mark in red, which means approved by censor, are now being received daily. The promptness of the delivery is in striking contrast to the slow moving of commercial mail and a tribute to the completeness and efficiency of the British army equipment.

Every command in the battle line has its field postoffice tent containing collapsible sorting racks, folding table, letter box, mail bags and other necessary paraphernalia, with an attachment of the army postoffice corps in charge.

The army postoffice corps is made up of the London post office employees enrolled in the territorial or militia. In the Egyptian campaign of 1882, the corps first saw service, consisting then of 100 men and two officers. During the South African war the force was increased to 648 officers and men, of whom several were killed in action while fifty died of disease. Its record week at that time was the distributing of 313,416 letters and 19,019 parcels and the despatching of 108,170 letters and packets.

RATE HEARINGS WILL BE RESUMED IN WASHINGTON

Railroads Will Continue Arguments Before Interstate Commerce Commission For Right to Advance Freight.

Washington, Oct. 17.—Rehearing of the application for the railroads for a five percent horizontal increase in freight rates will begin on Monday before the Interstate Commerce Commission, and the railroad presidents and shippers are lined up for a bitter battle.

While it is impossible to forecast what action will be taken by the commission, the railroad heads are hopeful of success, in view of the stand taken by President Wilson when the "true statement of facts" were presented to him by the delegation representing the carriers.

The order for the rehearing provides that the railroad officials will be limited to the presentation of facts disclosed and occurrences originating subsequently to the date upon which the records previously made were closed.

It is the contention of the railroads that revenue conditions have become so acute as a result of the European war that additional revenue from freight traffic is imperative. Although the feeling of the members of the Interstate Commerce Commission is said to be that the demand of the railroads for a general increase in freight rates is not justified, there is a strong sentiment in Washington in favor of the railroads.

Financial authorities, not only in America, but in Europe, have declared for many months, long before the war broke in Europe, that the revival of business enterprise in America depended on the granting of the railroad's demands.

In the hearings which will begin next Monday, the shippers will have equal opportunity to present their protests, and it is expected that they will present a large volume of evidence against the propriety and justice of increasing freight rates at the present time.

The principal opposition so far has come from the cattle men of the south and west.

WASTES PUBLIC MONEY

Democratic Editor Charges His Party With Bad Faith.

Col. George Harvey, in the North American Review, Points With Disgust to Greatest Appropriations in History.

In the North American Review for October Col. George Harvey, its editor, in a long article pleading for support of President Wilson, from which the following is reproduced by special consent, said:

"The Democratic platform demanded a return to that simplicity and economy which benefits a Democratic government, and a reduction in the number of useless offices, the salaries of which drain the substance of the people. This pledge has not been kept. The appropriations of the present congress aggregate the enormous sum of $1,089,408,777, the largest ever recorded, exceeding even that of the preceding congress by more than $30,000,000. No 'useless offices' have been abolished, and the 'drain upon the substance of the people' is greatest at the very time when the effect of reduced profits and incomes is most severely felt.

"Primarily, the blame for wastefulness so gross and deliberate as to constitute flagrant violation of a positive pledge must attach to the house of representatives, which brazenly ignored the repeated admonitions of Chairman Fitzgerald, who finally, in despair, made this abject confession:

"I am looking now at Democrats who seem to take amusement in soliciting votes on the floor of the house to overturn the committee on appropriations in its efforts to carry out the pledges of the Democratic platform. They seem to take it to be a huge joke not to obey their platform and to make ridiculous the efforts of the members of our party who do try to live up to the promises they made to the people.

"We charged the Republicans for 12 years of my service in the house under Republican administration with being grossly extravagant and reckless in the expenditure of the public money. I believe that charge to be true. I believed that my party, when placed in power, would demonstrate that the charges we had made in good faith were true. We are entitled to the help and to the support of the members on this side of the house in honest efforts to carry out the pledges of the Democratic party, and in our attempts to show that what we charged in order to get into power was true. We have not had that support. Our Democratic colleagues have not given that support to us thus far during this session of congress. They have unnecessarily piled up the public expenditures until the Democratic party is becoming the laughing stock of the country.

"Democratic senators have been hardly less heedless, and we believe it to be a fact that the only reduction effected by an executive department was $120 reported to have been saved by the secretary of state."

PREDICTS SHERMAN'S ELECTION.

Senator Sherman is, in temperament, in his methods of thinking, and in his open-mindedness toward all of the elements with an appeal to make to justice and reason in government a man peculiarly fitted to meet present-day demands in public life. Those who seek only justice, and the masses never ask more, have always found in him a worthy representative. His record is one of well-balanced judgment. He was progressive before any party took that word for a name. But his progressiveness has been so steadily forward along just and safe lines that any attempt, open or covert, to roll the Sullivan "conservative" roller over him as an enemy of all property right and interest must surely fail. We regard his election, by a great majority, as fully assured, if all of the Illinoisans who believe in what he stands for at this critical juncture will not allow confidence to outweigh public duty, but will go to the polls and vote.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

CONSERVATORY NOTES.

Mrs. Genevieve Clark Wilson's song recital will be given on Friday evening, October 30th. This will be Mrs. Wilson's first appearance this season, and her many admirers are keenly interested. She will be assisted by Miss Alice Phillips, who will devote the first half of the evening to a demonstration of the Dalcroze system of Eurhythmics, which is the physical interpretation of visualized music. Both Mrs. Wilson and Miss Phillips will have the support of Mr. Munger at the piano.

Glowing reports are received of the work done by Miss Flossie Cox head of the vocal department of Sayre college, Lexington, Ky. and of Miss Jessie Greer, supervisor of music in the public schools at Somerset, Ky. Miss Greer has also a private class of violin and voice pupils. Both these young ladies graduated from our vocal department last June.

Marguerite Butler, piano and Dean Cochran, violin, have been engaged to give a joint recital at the Concert of the Sacred Heart, Springfield, Ill., on the afternoon of Thursday, Oct. 29th. They will also appear on a program given the same evening at the residence of Miss Ida McCalland, on Lowell avenue.

Ed. Roach of Springfield spent Saturday with friends in the city.

100% DIVIDENDS In Fuel Saved Each Winter!

How to get more for your money. That's the rub.

There are ways and ways to economize. Some do without; some buy inferior articles. Others make a better use of the money they spend. And that is the kind of economy we want to talk about.

Did you ever figure out how much your heat cost you? Do you know that 95 per cent of the ordinary heating stoves utilize only half of the heat that is in the coal? Do you realize what this wasted half costs you? Utilize that lost half and you will make a real saving and get more heat in the bargain.

Every stove with numerous air leaking joints wastes more available heat than the stove originally cost. That waste is the gas portion of your coal and the heat that goes up the chimney in the ordinary stove. Save the gas—mix it properly with air—burn it and you develop an immense amount of otherwise wasted heat.

But it requires a stove of special construction. It must be a stove that is scientifically and mechanically perfect. It must be a stove that has no air leaks.

That stove is—

Cole's Original Hot Blast Heater

The stove that absolutely controls your fire.

The stove that burns the gases wasted by other stoves.

The stove that radiates a constant and steady heat from either soft coal, hard coal or lignite.

The stove in which the fire is never out.
The stove that saves its cost in fuel each winter.
The stove that lets no gas or smoke escape into the room.
The stove that gives you every atom of heat that is in your coal.
In fact, the only stove that is absolutely efficient—perfect in construction—perfect in operation.
We sell it under a broad guarantee to do all these things.
COME IN AND SEE IT. YOU WILL BE DELIGHTED.

See the name "Cole's" on the feed door of each stove. None genuine without it.

A Government Irrigated Farm on 20 Years' Time

Now's your chance, if you want to get an irrigated farm in the Big Horn Basin. The 20 Year Payment Extension Bill has passed both houses of Congress. This is just what you have been waiting for. It means, practically, a gift of an irrigated farm—5 per cent on the actual cost per acre of the irrigation system at the time of filing, no further payments for five years. December 1st in the 5th year after filing, a 5 per cent construction charge becomes due and a payment thereafter, each December, at for 15 years. No such easy purchase scheme has ever been presented. It comes direct from the Government and is wholly in the interest of the settler. Title to the land is secured under your homestead right. No interest charges.

Come at once to the new lands under new canal extension, in the Shoshone Project near Powell. Splendid crops alongside of the homestead you can take, not more than from 2 1/2 to 4 1/2 miles from town.

WORLD'S MARKET NEWS

ADVANCE IN WHEAT PRICE CONTINUES

Reports from Australia Assert Shortage There Will Amount to 75,000,000 Bushels

CORN AND OATS FINISH WITH GAINS

CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—Sensational crop loss reports from Australia were largely responsible today for a continued advance in the price of wheat. The market closed nervous at 5 1/2c above last night. Corn finished 3/4c to 1c up, oats with a gain of 1/4c and provisions strung out from 10c decline to a rise of 20c.

It was speedily apparent that if the estimates received today were substantially correct Australia was eliminated for this season as an exporter of wheat. Assertions were made that the shortage in Australia would amount to 75,000,000 bushels whereas the entire exportable surplus last year did not aggregate more than 57,000,000 bushels. In this connection Liverpool despatches intimated that importers were alarmed over the chance of future supplies in case of war complications becoming more acute.

Export houses led the buying in the wheat market here and were said also to be active at Duluth and Winnipeg and in the southwest as well. Predictions that world shipments next week would be less than European requirements helped to keep the market from any important reaction. Corn traders veered strongly to the buying side. Country holders were said to be refusing to sell either old or new corn, shipping demand was more urgent and there were numerous complaints of damage from wet weather.

Prices for oats were stimulated by rumors of Australia buying cargoes at New York, an occurrence said to be without precedent. There were also bullish advices regarding the Canadian crop. Provisions averaged 1/2c lower, reflecting a decline in the hog market. On the down turn however, there was a feet in general demand in-fluenced somewhat by the strength of grain.

EAT LESS AND TAKE SALT FOR KIDNEYS

Take a Glass of Salts if Your Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers.

The American men and women must guard constantly against Kid-ney trouble, because we eat too much and all our food is rich. Our blood is filled with uric acid which the kidneys strive to filter out, they weaken from overwork, become ang-erish; the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general de-cline in health.

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead, your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night; if you suffer with sick headache or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach, or you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, get from your phar-macist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of lemons and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kid-neys; to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder dis-orders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, makes a delicious efferves-cent lithia-water beverage, and be-comes in every home, because no-body can make a mistake by having a good kidney flushing any time.

MEASURES FOR COPING WITH SITUATION MAKE PROGRESS

Domestic Money Conditions Improve
Further—Rates for Mercantile Paper Recede to Six Per Cent.

New York, Oct. 17.—The war news this week was regarded in many quarters of the financial district as making for a prolongation of the conflict and the consequent disturbance of the world's finances. Measures for coping with the situation, however, made steady progress. The call on subscribers to the $100,000,000 gold pool for a twenty-five per cent payment increased the foreign exchange resources of the pool committee but the sustained strength of rates revealed the extent of the requirements to be met. Domestic money conditions improved further, rates for mercantile paper receding to six per cent and call loans in Wall street to seven per cent and under. Promise of the early operation of the federal reserve system had its influence in this connection.

The field of permitted dealings in securities was slightly enlarged but under careful restrictions. Capital operations are at present limited almost entirely to the refunding of maturing obligations at higher rates of interest. A further reduction in the cash reserve deficit was the notable feature of the weekly bank statement, that item now standing at less than $1,000,000 against a depletion of $48,000,000 recorded the middle of August. The week's cash gain of a little more than $6,000,000 was considerably under most estimates. In its main essentials, however, the statement was the most favorable reported by local clearing house institutions since the issuance of loan certificates and emergency currency.

Edward Reynolds of Woodson precinct was among the business callers in the city Saturday.

EVAN WILLIAMS.

The Great Welsh Tenor Who Comes To the Grand Oct. 26th.

Evan Williams who is probably the widest known tenor that America has ever produced, although popularly known as the "Great Welsh Tenor," is a native of Ohio. His parents were Welsh, and Williams is proud of it. However, he is ever anxious to give America full credit for his musical training.

There are many great artists before the public who received their entire artistic education in this country; for example there is Margaret Keyes, the contralto of the Chicago Grand Opera Company; also Florence Hinkle, the most brilliant of American sopranos. Both artists of international reputation. But it is safe to say that of all singers developed in America, no one has attained such splendid world wide fame as Evan Williams.

In addition to his friendly attitude on the concert platform and the almost homely simplicity of manner which is at once charming and manly, Williams possesses a voice not excelled in beauty and velvety smoothness by the rarest of Cremona violins. Most striking of all his attributes, is a warm and vibrant quality of tone that touches the very heartstrings of his audiences. In no other tenor on the concert stage does one find the same appeal to the emotions so perfectly linked with true artistic musicianship. Such eminent critics as Richard Aldrich of the New York Times and W. J. Henderson of the New York Sun, have written much of Williams straightforward and manly style, and his complete mastery of the finest qualities of tone production. His recitals are invariably provocative of the greatest enthusiasm and highest praise.

Mr. Williams is engaged to appear in Jacksonville on October 26th. This will be the first recital ever given in this city by the great singer, and already much interest has been aroused by the coming event. It was at first planned to have the concert in one of the churches, but after some discussion it seemed more advisable to secure the opera house for such a sterling attraction. For Williams has a tremendous following throughout the country, not alone composed of those who have been fortunate enough to attend his concerts, but also the thousands of ardent admirers of his phonograph records. There is probably not an owner of one of these machines who is not familiar with the wonderfully effective records that Williams has made. For this reason alone, a large seating capacity is of first importance and it is safe to predict that long before the night of the recital the best seats in the house will be sold.

During the coming musical season Evan Williams will tour from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

GERMAN PRISONERS AT CAMBERLY HOPE FOR EARLY EXCHANGE

Civilians and Soldiers Are Guarded in Separate Stockades—Public Takes But Slight Interest in Them and Prisoners Apparently in Good Humor.

London, Oct. 3.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press)—The 5,000 German prisoners, within the wired enclosure at Camberly, today took on revived hope of soon being exchanged. The sun shone brightly all day and the psychology of the on-lookers who came over the sandy roads in motor-cars, all kinds of horse-drawn vehicles, bicycles and afoot to peer at the impounded subjects of the Kaiser. "They ain't so cheery when it's raining," said the officer of the territorials who walked about the camp with the writer.

The civilians are separated from the soldiers, each class having its own "stockade" with several lanes of wire and rows of arclights and sentry boxes surrounding it. The two camps are on a hill-top, so sandy that even heather seems to grow upon it reluctantly.

In the civilian camp today were about 2,800 men, most of them growing beards, all of military age, garbed in all kinds of clothing. Among them at least a score of sailors wore their ship clothes. Many bore signs of being careful about their dress even in such handicapping conditions. Some were taken off ships, many were arrested in England and few have very appearance of having a good sized wardrobe. Some of these men have been prisoners for seven weeks. None knows what has come on in the world since he entered this camp since no newspapers or other sources of information are available.

This afternoon over half of the civilian population were listening to the strains of a singular band or orchestra as ever assembled. The men were permitted to keep such musical instruments as they happened to have with them. The British officers say there were some excellent musicians among them, including several violinists who delight the camp in its quieter moods. But today technique was swallowed up in volume and about 60 instruments, including cornets, horns, drums, violins, triangles and three accordions were vigorously at work playing, not German airs, but "It's a long way to Tipperary," the Briton's most popular war song.

Amusements for Prisoners.
The humor of the thing appeals to the imprisoned Germans who always applauded this election vigorously. The repertoire of this peculiar band or orchestra is increasing but I was told that it avoids all German melodies. There must be more psychology in that though the officers said they had placed no taboo on German songs.

In another part of the camp one or two good acrobats were amusing groups of onlookers and a few were wrestling. But even in the sunlight there were hundreds of men silently walking about or sitting alone thinking of—what?

The camp of soldiers reveals all kinds of uniforms as varied in character as those seen in the civilian camp. The sun-light seemed to have a less enlivening effect upon these men who have been nearer the fighting, have seen their comrades dying and know some of the temper and character of the fighting across the Channel.

There are over 2,000 soldiers in this camp. They appeared much less restless than the civilians. Most of them loy about in small groups. There was no skylarking, no wrestling, no leap frog, no acrobatics as in the neighboring camp. There have been no attempts at escape, no attempts to communicate with outsiders, according to the officers. It would be useless anyway. The prisoners camps are surrounded by two rows of sentries even in the day time, the outer row to keep back the curious.

The tents, the food and the camp equipment are substantially the same as those of the British soldiers a few miles away at Aldershot. The prisoners have all been listed, ready for exchange when it is deemed advisable or when the diplomats have out the necessary red tape. The soldiers, strange as it may seem excite less sympathy than the civilians, perhaps because imprisonment is considered a regular part of their business, because they have not been detained so long, or because they have had more excitement to help them pass away their time. Whatever the reason, it is noticeable that two-thirds of the onlookers loiter around the civilian camp.

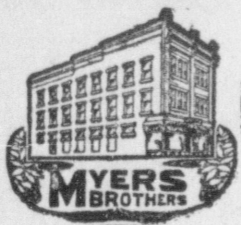

"What can I give you for your courtesy?" asked the writer as he left the officer who had escorted him around the enclosure, at the same time reaching in his pocket for cigars.

"Oh you might put a half crown in the box at headquarters for the Prince of Wales' Fund," was the reply.

Caring For Worn Out Horses.

London, Oct. 2.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press).—The shipping of worn out horses to the slaughter houses in Holland and Belgium, which created a scandal, has been stopped perhaps permanently by the war. To prevent its revival, a commercial company has been formed with the approval and assistance of the Royal Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals for the purpose of converting worthless horses into salable products. But unlike in the slaughter houses of the continent, whose revolting methods shocked all England and caused parliament to pass a law regulating the traffic, the animals will have humane treatment until they receive a painless death.

The Liebler Company is actively at work on preparations for "The Garden of Paradise," which is to be a magnificent spectacular production.

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK MARKET CONDITIONS REVIEWED

Past Week Has Not Been Very Satisfactory One to Shippers—Receipts of Cattle and Hogs Show Liberal Increase—All Prices Lower.

In reviewing the livestock conditions in Chicago, Alexander, Ward & Conover, have the following to say with reference to cattle and hogs.

BEEF CATTLE—Receipts of cattle this week show a liberal increase at all the markets, which has resulted in an unsatisfactory trade for the bulk of the arrivals. Desirable corn-fed, however, will show 10¢ to 15¢ advance from the bad close of last week. Our sales Monday at $10.80 and $10.85 and Wednesday at $10.90 were the only cattle that reached these prices, and we also landed a drove of 983-lb. yearlings at $10.70, fed by C. S. Batchelder of Warrenburg, Ill., who is holding back a load of the tops for the International.

We are not anticipating any great change in the near future for the medium grades of cattle, but with the termination of the western season the demand will no doubt be stronger, while we think the tendency from now on will show some improvement in the prices for good to choice cattle.

STOCKERS AND FEEDERS—There was a very liberal supply of stockers and feeders this week and the market is 25¢ to 40¢ lower than the high point ten days ago. Choice grades, both the light and the heavy show the least decline.

BUTCHER STOCK—The butcher market is closing in good shape on prime heavy cows and light yearling heifers, also on canners, but anything else in the cow and heifer line is fully 15¢ to 25¢ lower for the week, and very hard to sell at that. Good bulls and heavy hogs are selling fully steady with a week ago. Low price bulls and light hogs are 15¢ lower. Veal calves 25¢ lower for the week, heavy calves 25¢ to 50¢ lower.

We do not look for much improvement on medium and in-between kinds of cows and heifers until the western stop coming, which will not be for some little time. Other kinds should sell well the coming week with moderate receipts.

PIGS—Receipts of hogs continue moderate, and we have a talling off in October thus far 100,000 head compared to October, 1913, and about 900,000 head short for the year at the Chicago market. Prices at present are 25¢ to 50¢ lower compared to a year ago. We feel that the unsettled condition of the world's finances has had more or less influence on the demand. Our big packers are also using the "big pig crop" as a club against prices. Whether the "big pig crop" will mature or not is a question. Feeders will certainly balk at feeding corn at the prevailing prices, even if disease does not cut down the herds.

Top today (Friday) is $8.15 for choice light butchers; bulk of the good hogs, $7.90 to $8. The range in prices is much narrower, and there seems to be a preference among buyers for the lower-priced hogs. Many eastern shippers are buying a fat grade of 300-lb sows in preference to the choice kinds of high priced hogs. Mixed hogs bring from $7.60 to $7.80 and packing hogs from $7.60 down, depending much on the fat and weight.

Pigs are coming a little more freely, but not much sickness among them; $7.25 to $7.50 is buying the bulk of the pigs. The serum companies are also buying sick pigs freely for medicine.

AT STRAWN'S CROSSING.

Manager Julius Strawn of the Strawn's Crossing elevator has had a good run of business during the past week. During the week he has handled 9,000 bushels of corn and two car loads of hogs.

The Chicago & Alton stops three trains a day now at the Crossing regularly and it is the hope of the residents of that vicinity to have two more trains stop, making five trains a day. About 20 people came in from that community on yesterday morning's Alton and it surely seems to the advantage of the railroad to take good care of the people of that rich farming region in regard to freight and passenger transportation.

NOTABLE WEDDING TOOK PLACE IN WASHINGTON.

Robert Taft Weds Miss Martha Bowers—Prominence of Two Families—Added to Interest in Nuptials.

Washington, Oct. 17.—The wedding of Robert Taft, son of ex-President William H. Taft, and Miss Martha Bowers, daughter of the late Solicitor General Lloyd W. Bowers, which event took place this noon at St. John's church in Washington, was the most notable event of the early fall in society circles in the capital city. The occasion brought together many notables in government circles, as well as college men and social leaders from many cities.

Miss Helen Taft, daughter of the ex-President, was maid of honor for Miss Bowers, and the bridesmaids were Miss Louise Hellen, Miss Frances Noyes, Miss Marjory Edgar of Minneapolis, and Miss Julia Thompson of Chicago.

Geo. Harrison of Washington was best man for young Mr. Taft, and the ushers were Charles Taft, Stephen Philbin of Houston, Tex., Stanhope Bayne Jones of Baltimore, John Herron of Pittsburgh, Carl Lohman of Akron, Walter Logan of New York, Adrian Van Sinderen of New York, and Harry Bingham of New York, all classmates of the groom at Yale.

The church was tastefully decorated for the occasion.

Rev. Roland Cotton Smith, D. D., rector of St. John's, performed the ceremony.

Following the wedding at the church, a small reception and breakfast took place at the home of the bride's parents in Rhode Island avenue.

Ex-President Taft and Mrs. Taft came from New Haven for the wedding, and were prominent figures at the church.

Robert Taft, the groom, made a brilliant record at Yale and later at Harvard, where he completed his law studies and received his degree with honors. He is at present practicing law in Cincinnati, and will take his bride to a new home at 1812 Dexter street, that city, where they will be at home after Nov. 15.

NORMAL U. GAME WAS CANCELLED

ILLINOIS WILL NOT PLAY
TEACHERS THIS YEAR.

Rain Leading Factor in Ultimately Calling Off Football Contest Between Institutions. — Normal
Team is in Crippled Condition.

Jupiter Pluvius, who has been on a rampage for the past week, kept up his antics so long that the big game between Illinois College and Normal University, billed for the Illinois gridiron Saturday afternoon, was called off. Following in the wake of this announcement came the one that the game had been cancelled for this year.

Here are the facts. Friday night Coach Harmon called Pres. Felme of Normal U., over long distance telephone asking him if his team could come Monday instead of Saturday, because of the heavy rain. He said this was impossible so Coach Harmon told him they would look for his team Saturday. On Saturday morning at 5 o'clock Coach Harmon was called over long distance by Coach Russell of Normal U., asking him about the weather, stating that it was raining in Normal. Coach Harmon said that the same condition existed here. Coach Russell said that being the case he would not bring his team to Jacksonville. Saturday night at 6 o'clock President Rammekamp called Pres. Felme and asked him if his team could come Monday to play the game and he replied that it was not possible for the squad to be away except on Saturday. Coach Russell wanted the game the day Illinois played Lombard but that was impossible. The result of the phone conference was that the game was cancelled for this season.

While Illinois regrets greatly that they were not privileged to meet Normal Saturday, there is really reason to believe that their team was in a pretty badly crippled condition, and would have been no match for the Illinois squad. Capt. Benjamin, the star player of the Normal team is out of the game as is also Deal and Hood, the two fast ends. With these three star men gone, the teachers would have been at the mercy of the I. C. eleven.

It is to be regretted that the authorities at Normal could not see fit to let their men come on Monday as season tickets have been sold here for the game and the patrons of football are surely entitled to some consideration.

Illinois meet Shurtleff college here next Friday.

JUNIOR KITCHENED CONTEST CLOSES

Miss Izola Jacoby won the beautiful Junior Kitchened cabinet given as a prize in the "Votes for Little Women" contest at the Andre & Andre store. The contest closed Saturday night and Miss Jacoby who had 2120 votes was the fortunate one. A great deal of interest developed in the contest and there were many little girls who spurred on by the sight of the prize were striving to secure it. The cabinet given away corresponds in every detail to one of larger size. It is by no means a toy or play thing and is certainly an article of which "any little woman" might well be proud. To say that the prize is an exact reproduction of full size Kitchened means that it is absolutely complete in every detail.

JACKSONVILLE DOWNS MIS-SOURI SCHOOL 28 TO 0.

Local Aggregation Proves Too Fast
For Opponents in Second Game of Season.—Team Returned Last Night.

Jacksonville high school football team, defeated the Hannibal high school team by a score of 28 to 0 in the Hannibal ground Saturday afternoon. It was the second defeat which Jacksonville had administered to the Missouri school this season, the former score being 25 to 0.

The ground was in fair condition for the contest and while the score shows the game to be one-sided it was hard fought throughout, the Hannibal eleven showing better team work than they did in Jacksonville. Each quarter the J. H. S. men succeeded in getting seven points. In the first quarter Haigh broke through the line for a 70 yard run ending with a touch down, thanks to some splendid interference by Dale Boxell. The touch down in the second quarter was made by Dick Reynolds on an end run. In the third quarter Killbrow was credited with a touch down, a forward pass to Myers netting a gain of 35 yards figuring in the score. Forward passes to Boxell and Pyatt assisted the team in working the ball down near goal when Dick Reynolds was pushed over for a touch down. Line bucks by Killbrow, Haigh and Maddox aid in the last score of the game. There was a good sized crowd present and the local players were accorded good treatment and work of officials commended. The team returned to Jacksonville last night at 9:45. Thompson, Smith and H. Reynolds went along as substitutes.

The Test of Father Time

Has placed his unqualified stamp of approval on the Genuine ROUND OAK Stove, made for over forty years by the Estate of P. D. Beckwith, Dowagiac, Mich.

In principle sound, and construction durable, it has enjoyed national success. Take the time to investigate the fitting, workmanship, weight and quality of material, and you will sell yourself one.

Yes, it burns successfully and economically, hard coal, soft coal, coke.

wood and cobs, forms no clinkers, and holds the fire perfectly. It is not surprising it is widely imitated in design and name, but all imitations fall far short in delivering the results secured by the genuine, which has never yet disappointed a user.

We sincerely recommend your investigation and purchase of one this season.

Ratio McKinney Seeks Damage From C. B. & Q.—Personal Injury and Excessive Cattle Shrinkage Basis of Action.

Several suits were filed Saturday which will come to hearing at the November term of the circuit court. A bill in chancery Charles C. Maginn vs. Ada Maginn et al. was filed by Kirby, Wilson & Broadhouse. L. O. and H. A. Berryman as executors, have brought suit against G. E. and Susie McNeeley, through M. T. Layman, their solicitor. The suit is based on a note for $600 which is alleged to be past due. Worthington, Reeve & Green have brought two cases against the C. B. & Q. railway in behalf of Ratio McKinney, one of $1,000 and the other for $5,000. Only the praecipe in each case has been filed. It is understood, however, that both are the result of a cattle shipment made some months ago by the complainant. It is stated that Mr. McKinney shipped two cars of cattle to the Chicago market and that because of alleged delays in transit, the shrinkage on the stock was much greater than should have been the case, and he is therefore asking damages in the sum of $1,000.

The latter suit is for personal injury. According to Mr. McKinney's claim he accompanied the two cars of cattle to Chicago and at Bushnell when the cars had been switched from one train to another, it became necessary for him to walk from the stock cars to the caboose, a distance of about fifty cars length. It is alleged that trainmen told him he would have time to reach the caboose before the train moved on and that such was not the case and that he was knocked down, had his shoulder dislocated and was otherwise injured by the moving cars.

WHY NOT SAVE $5.00?
WE HAVE OVER 800 FALL AND WINTER COATS IN STOCK AND THE PRICES ARE SO LOW THAT OUR COMPETITORS ARE WONDERING HOW WE CAN DO IT. IF YOU PREFER TO PAY $5.00 MORE THAN WE ASK FOR THE SAME THING, YOU WILL OVERLOOK

LUTHERAN SYNOD IN SESSION AT BEARDSTOWN

Rev. J. G. Kuppler Has Been in Attendance—Reports Tell of Active Work.

Rev. J. G. Kuppler, pastor of the Evangelical Lutheran church in this city has been attending the Central Illinois District Lutheran Synod of Missouri which began a pastoral conference among the St. John's Lutheran congregation last Thursday in Beardstown. The synod will come to a close on Tuesday of next week. There are about eighty-five ministers belonging to the conference and of this number seventy signified their intentions of attending the sessions.

The purpose of the conference is to discuss doctrinal and other church matters. These meetings are a valuable source of information for all who attend them.

On Friday evening a special German service was held when a sermon for the benefit of the pastors was delivered. Today the annual mission festival of the congregation will be held and three services will occur and at which collections for missionary services will be taken.

The Missouri Synod supports missions in Brazil and Argentina, S. A., in India and China, Asia; in Australia and New Zealand; among the negroes and Indians of our own country; it sends money also for the support of some poor mission congregations in Europe; but its greatest missionary work is done among the German immigrants of our own country and Canada. In the western section of the last named country, which is attracting so many German immigrants during late years, a vast mission field has been opened in consequence, and scores of missionaries have been sent up there within the last few years, and at its session in Chicago last May, Synod resolved to spend $200,000 on this great northwestern field alone during the next three years. It is for the support of these vast missionary enterprises that these mission festivals are held.

INJURIES PROVE FATAL TO DAWSON D. ROBINSON

Prentice Resident, Kicked by Horse Thursday Afternoon, Dies Saturday Morning at Dr. Day's Hospital—Was Lifelong Resident of County.

Dawson D. Robinson, who was kicked by a horse and seriously injured Thursday afternoon at his home near Prentice, died Saturday morning at 4:15 o'clock at the hospital of Dr. J. A. Day, West State street. He was brought to Jacksonville late Thursday forenoon and operated on for intestinal rupture, but from the first there was little hope of saving his life and he passed away without regaining consciousness the morning of the next day.

Mr. Robinson was a son of William and Caroline Wallbaum Robinson and was born 51 years ago on the Robinson homestead, three miles southeast of Prentice, where he has resided all his life. He was a member of the Berea Christian church but a few miles from his home. He was an honorable business man, a successful farmer, a loving husband and father and his friendship was esteemed by all who knew him.

In Feb. 1885 he was united in marriage to Miss Mary Holmes at Hannibal, Mo. To this union there was born three children, who together with the wife survive to mourn the death of the husband and father. The children are Mrs. Clara Johnson of St. Joseph, Mo., Howard, who resides on a farm near Prentice and Miss Lydia, who resides at the home of her parents. He is also survived by one brother Joel Robinson, residing near Prentice.

Funeral services will be held at 2:00 o'clock Monday afternoon in Berea church and will be in charge of Rev. Mr. French of Virginia.

Interment will be made in the cemetery adjoining the church lot.

THE EMPORIUM.

WILL DISPOSE OF HERD.
Fletcher J. Blackburn, who has for some time been carrying on dairying on a somewhat extensive scale, will have a public sale probably some time in November and will dispose of the excellent herd of pure bred Holstein and Jersey cows that he has accumulated. Mr. Blackburn has made a success of dairying but it is his intention the coming year to become a resident of Jacksonville and while he will devote some attention to farming, it will not be in as large a way as in the past, as he will engage in other business as well. Whenever the sale is held there will be 50 Holsteins beside a goodly number of Jerseys to be sold at public auction. The increased interest in Morgan county with reference to dairying now by comparison with former years will mean that the sale will be largely attended and it will be of sufficient size also to attract those interested in good cattle from a distance.
